Contract Action Team & Leadership Trainings

How We Can Win Strong Contracts for RNs and Our Patients!

The NYSNA Labor Education Department is hosting Contract Action Team (CAT) / leadership trainings to support bargaining across New York State. By attending these trainings, you will:

- Learn tools to engage and involve co-workers throughout your facility;
- Learn to prioritize the units where you should spend more time;
- Identify leaders;
- Help build the CAT and win a strong contract!

Attend one or all of these skills-based trainings below, and bring your fellow CAT co-workers with you! Each session is offered multiple times.

- Mobilizing members through organizing conversations (90 minutes)
- Rounding to build the contract campaign (90 minutes)
- Evaluating our collective strength through mapping (90 minutes)
- Using texting tools and social media to build the contract campaign (60 minutes)

Register by selecting the trainings you want to attend, and return to your NYSNA representative, or register online at https://bit.ly/CATtraining

Each session is offered multiple times. All trainings will be on Zoom.
